Ministry of Education

REPUBLIC OF PALAU (Site Is Under Construction)

What We Do

The Ministry of Education is one of the nine departments of the Executive Branch of the National Government of the Republic of Palau, responsible for the education of Palau's children and runs the public school system. It is headed by the Minister of Education, Mr. Sinton Soalablai.

The mission of the Republic of Palau's Ministry of Education, in partnership with parents and community, is to ensure that our children and youth preserve Palauan culture and become contributing citizens and productive workers in a changing world. This will establish a high quality of life and security for future generations of Palauans.

Education Convention 2020

July 15 - 16, 2020, Koror, PW 96940

What We Do

The Ministry of Education holds an annual general meeting in the summer, the Education Convention. In 2020, this will be the twenty-sixth convention held, at which the whole organization has a chance to review its past activities, set directions for the upcoming year, and carry out valuable knowledge sharing and networking activities.

The gathering and its activities is open to stakeholders and the general populace who may want to learn about what the schools are doing.
